POETRY.

SIR MARMADURE'S MUSINGS.

I won a noble fame;
But, with a sudden dawn,
The people snatched my crown,
And, in the mire, trod down My lofty name.

I bore a bounteous purse;
And, with a sudden dawn, Then, grown me day by day, But, a brown poor as they,
Have now their curse.

I gained what men called friends;
But now their love is hate,
And I have learned, too late,
How maled minds unite,
And friendship ends.

I clasped a woman's breast—As if her heart, knew—Or, rancid, would be true—
Who now, alas, she, no; False like the rest.

I now am all bereft—
As when some tower doth fall,
With battlements and wall,
And gate, and bridge, and all—
And nothing left.

But I account it worth All pangs of fair hopes crossed—To have been loved, and lost, To gain the heavens, at cost Of losing earth.

Lo, lest I be inclined To musing, that is vain, Henceforth in my instill, To God, a sweet good-will To all mankind.

—Theodore Hilton.

SPRING AND MY LOVE.

Now I have bidden farewell to the Spring that is past,
And a long farewell to my love!
Truly the flowers in herit will blossom afresh at my feet.

But my darling, when I
And my darling, when I Who gave me a gift so precious but The Master of Magic, who sent it, ah Surely could send it again.

Why do I think for a moment
The lamp Who is there now that will carry my little vessel, for love When I go next year to the meadow to look on the joy of Spring?
—Clifford E. Fox, from the Chicago.

VIEWS AND VARIETIES

Clear Sayings

Satan—What are those two automobiles fighting about? Assistants—They've just got into an argument over whether this place ought to be air cooled or water cooled.—Puck.

Adam was discussing his rib. "It is the only operation I can talk about as yet," he apologized. Here he apparently was discussing the advent of appendicitis.—Harper's Bazar.

Mrs. Oldtimer—When we were in Europe, I met the President. He was just covered with hieroglyphics.
Mrs. Newrich—Horror! Weren't you afraid that some of the ugly things would go on your head?

"What's the trouble, wife?" "No trouble, whatever." "Yes, there is.
What are you worrying about now—something that happened at home or something that happened in a novel?"
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Wife changes her hat, changes her mind.
Charles her glad gown new;
When dark the furniture we often find She's also changed a few.
—Philadelphia Telegraph.

MUCH IN LITTLE

The per capita consumption of codfish is greater in England than in any other country.

Artificial wood for matches, made from straw, has been invented by a Frenchman.

Montana broke all her records for coal production last year by mining 2,929,700 short tons.

It is rather singular that Washington is the only state west of the Rockies that contains coal from which coke can be made.

A German engineer has invented an electrically operated apparatus by which he claims to measure time to the ten-millionth part of a second.

In Ceylon, notwithstanding that thousands of acres are given over to rubber cultivation, the country is one of the most important planting industries.

There are 32 postoffices in the five principal islands of Hawaii. These islands all have telephone systems, with rates about the same as in the United States proper.

German business men of Mexico City have purchased a tract of suburban land where, according to the Mexican Herald, they will erect numerous modern residences, forming a colony.

The population of Buenos Ayres on June 30, 1911, was 1,829,597, an increase in the year ending on that date of 24,444. The population of the city of La Plata on June 30 was estimated at 100,605.

Owing to the refusal of the Turkish government to permit the connection of the Greek and Turkish railroads, the Turkish government has decided to build a new line from the rest of Europe, all communication with which is affected by sea.

The present mail contract between the United Fruit company and the government of British Honduras will expire during March, 1912, and in antecedent to the expiration of the contract the Gazette of Aug. 12 published a notice inviting proposals.

Some idea of the magnitude of the egg trade in Russia can be obtained from the exports, which in 1910 amounted to 2,232,825,000. The number of eggs sent out of the country totaling 2,998,000,000, as compared with 2,845, 600,000, valued at $2,039,180, in 1909.

Mowers and reapers imported into Germany grow less each year as their home manufacture extends. During the first four months of this year the imports were only 3,521 metric tons, valued at $42,878, against 6,586 tons, worth $87,474, in the same period last year, and 7,504 tons, worth $116,178, in the first four months of 1909.

The Argentine minister in London informs Reuters' Agency that the Argentine minister of foreign affairs telegraphs that the Argentine government promises to be exceptionally favorable, and offers bright prospects to prospective settlers. There are under contract 22,000 acres of land expected, will yield 5,500,000 tons of grain.
From November to March labor is assured for 136,000 harvesters. The wages are higher than last year, when $2 (American gold) was obtained, each person being thus able to save nearly $300 during the crop season.

Charles Jameson, the American engineer sent to China by the American Red Cross society to survey the famine districts of the Kiangsu and Anhui regions, which are liable to recurring floods, is on his way from Peking to Nanking to confer with the authorities prior to making his survey. He is accompanied by a Chinese engineer deputed by the government. The expenses of his undertaking are entirely borne by the American Red Cross society. The Chinese government has willingly acquiesced in the survey, and a valuable report should be the result.

Austin, Pa., Flood At The Breed.
Again the Breed is to the front with one of its timely and excellent picture-productions of the events of today, and this time it is the great flood at Austin, Pa.; here is the little town completely wiped out by the bursting of the great dam, and its consequent train of destruction of life and property. The immense concrete dam that held back the waters for so long, was taxed to the utmost by the great rains, and finally it could no longer hold the rapidly increasing volume of water, and it carrying with it death and destruction.

Being to the fact that this event occurred in the immediate vicinity of the Motion Picture factories, accounts for the appearance of this very graphic film-variation of the catastrophe on the market. It is extremely interesting, showing all the details of the destruction, all of the public buildings, with their individual damages, the several views of the dam with its immense gashing breaches, and the scene, sections almost completely turned around in the frightful mel-strom.

This picture will be shown two days only, and an evening performance will commence at 7.15 to accommodate the large crowd that follows these sensational picture-events at the Breed.

Besides the above named attractions, the programme includes some of the surrounding pictures of the catastrophe

TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMmissioners for New London County: I hereby apply for a license to sell and exchange spirituous and intoxicating liquors, ale, lager beer, Rhine wine and cider in the building at 30 Main street, Town of Norwich, except in said building, any part or parts of which are cut off or partitioned in such manner as to form booths, side rooms or retiring rooms. My place of business is not located within two hundred feet in a direct line from any church edifice or public or parochial school, or the premises pertaining thereto, or any postoffice, public library, or cemetery. Dated at Norwich, this 4th day of October, A. D. 1911. Patrick Mahoney, Applicant. We, the undersigned, are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate of the Town of Norwich, and hereby sign and endorse the foregoing application of Patrick Mahoney for a license, and hereby certify that said applicant is a suitable person to be licensed pursuant to said application.
